CHARADE DEFEATS BANQUET

ONE FAVORITE WINS AT ELIZABETH.

STONENELL IN A WALK-ST. DOMINGO BEATEN

fives to the Elizabeth races yesterday, but the same old faces were there scarching the wind for "good made his debut, and after seeing him heaten by Charade in the last race many shrewd men remarked; "There is the winner of the Brooklyn Handleap."

Banquet never looked so well. When he reduces a ere large and the horses are at the weights, about evenly he will be in the pink of condition.

Score one for Dr. Kick. Onklash and St. Hubert were withdrawn from the first race, leaving four to fight for the spoils—Jacob Rupperl's chestnut colt St. Domingo (870,000), by St. Blake out of Lady Primrose: Fielschman & Son's bay colt Traverse, by Deceiver out of Traviata; J. A. & A. H. Morris's chestnut colt Ciysmic, by Tom Ochiltree out of Fair Water, and C. F. sanders's (Dr. Kirk's) bay colt Blue Blood, by Charaxus out of Elite. Traverse, a stylish fellow, was backed from 15 to 1 down to 4 to 1, those in the know regarding him as a certainty, st. Domingo was the favorite at 1 to 2. Blue Blood was 5 to 1 and Clysmic 15 to 1. Clysmic led to the head of the stretch, with St. Domingo and Traverse in close attendance. Elius Blood sulked and fell four or five lengths behind. Sims began riding at the quarter and Elius Blood was believed. to be "not in it" at all. On the turn, however, he took it into his head to run, and in the stretch, the others tiring fast and falling to a canter, he came away and won in the easiest possible manner by two FIFTH RACE-One mile and a sixteenth St. Domingo must be taken out of his Making.

f Mr. Ruppert expects to the state of his Making. lengths, St. Domingo second, four lengths before case if Mr. Ruppert expects to win races with him. Hothouse training will not do in these days. No conservatories! The way to make a $30,000 colt worth $30,000 is to make him win.

The way the first race was run illuminated two points-which jockeys are ever forgetting in their eagerness to win. The three in front, Littlefield. Thompson and Lilly, forced the pace so strongly from the start, each trying to get ahead of the other, that their mounts were all out at the end of the half-mile. Flue Blood merely rated along and won. If he had consented to race with the others from the start he would not have you. Breathless haste from post to post loses many a race.

There were more examples of stypidity in the second race-Rogers, Sims, Bergen, J. Lambley, Lambley, Jones, Blake, Grifin and McDermott, McDermott and Sims do not often ride so badly. J. E. McDonald, and Sins do not drien and Sams do not drien and Sussiness manager-elect of "The New-York American Fourth of July St. Patrick's Day Tammany Sperting Chronicle," "Mike" Dwyer in the crow's nest, Richard Croker at the wheel, etc., etc., sent to the post a good-looking though rather light-waisted colt in Chief Justice, by Hindoo out of Sabina, and by main strength and awkwardness and good luck Chief Jus-tice won by a neck from T. Welch's familiar old chestnut gelding Climax, who beat P. J. Ward & Bro.'s chestnut horse Long Bounce half a length. Bounce lost owing to overanxiety on the part of Mc-Dermott. He got off near the tail end of the field, Dermott. He got off near the tail end of the field, and McDermott moved heaven and earth to rush him into the lead in the first quarter. When in the stretch he did get to the front, he had no speed to withstand the challenge of Chief Justice and climax. Sims, on Long Beach, seemed to lose his head completely. In the last quarter he fumbled and bungled. In the last quarter he fumbled and bungled. J. Lambley pumped Requefort dry as early as possible in a vain effort to keep in front all the way. The closing price against Chief Justice was 5 to 1. M. F. Dwyer started both Charter and Chateau in the third race, the Pamrapo Stakes, Taral riding the former and Lambley the latter. Longdale, West Park, Jennie T., Josie, Sunglimpse and Terrapin were withdrawn. The favorite was J. M. Jeffcott's bay filly Glance, by Falsetto out of Glimpse, and the second choice W. H. Roller's bay gelding Hymn, by Himyar out of Una B. Hymn has been chanting at Guttenburg. Charter and Chateau were well backed, as was J. A. & A. H. Motris's imported bay colt Wolsey, by Hampton out of Jennie B. Charter's heavy back ing was due simply to Taral's following, though it was generally believed that Chateau was the better of the pair. Mr. Dwyer made no declaration, and the management did not require the bookmakers to couple

Rowe made an excellent start after a patient delay of ten (minutes, Charter being in front. He immediately proceeded to the rear, while W. C. Daly's bay filly Gertie ran into the lead, followed by Glance and Charteau. In the stretch the race

A biting which made things extremely disagreeable. The attendance was large, but lacking in enthalsasm. The American hog was out in force in train and on track.

From the lifth race Mordotte, Johnetta, Estelle and Hoey were withdrawn, leaving, even starters, M. F. Dwyer started two, Hamma and Harvest, without making a declaration. As in the third race, the bookmakers refused to lay against the purcoupled. Hammie was the favorite, but he failed miserably, finishing far back. Harvest and White Rose made the running to the stretch. Ac Empires Stable's splendid chestnut coil Commence, by Sir Modred, out of Ethel, then came away in a tight finish, and won by a next from the Glen Island Stable's brown colt Nick, who beat Gold Dollar, now the property of W. C. Daly, four lengths. Commence is the colt for which Matt Byrnes, representing Marcus Daly, offered $30,000 last season.

Lepanto, Hot, Charade and Banquet this first appearance) ran in the last race, Banquet being the favorite at evens. The distance was a mile and an eighth. Banquet looked well, though high in flesh. He did not seen quite ready to encounter a seasoned horse. Lepanto set a merry pace and died away in the stretch. Banquet trailed for nearly a mile, then moved up. He weakened at the end, owing to lack of condition, and Charade won, with something to spire, Banquet second, Lepanto third.

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

ANDREW T. SULLIVAN, POSTMASTER. THE APPOINTMENT MADE YESTERDAY-BACKED BY HUGH MILAUGHLIN.

expected appointment of Andrew T. Sallivan Postmaster of Brooklyn was made yesterday by dent Cleveland and Postmaster-General Bissell. Mr. Sullivan had been acting Postmater since the recent death of Postmaster Collins, and had been promoted from the office of cashler in the Postoffice to be Assistant Po-tmaster after the death of Assistant Postmaster smith on March 8. He was appointed Custodian of the new Federal Building to succeed Postmaster Collins last week, and this was known to foreshadow the appointment he received yesterday. He is required to give a bond of $250,000, of which $180,000 is on the account of the Postoffice proper, and $70,000 for the Money Order Department. He must have two or more sufficient sureties, and as soon as his bond is approved by the Postmastertieneral he will be authorized to discharge the dutle-

At the death of the Assistant Postmaster Mr. Sullivan was selected to succeed him, and when Postmaster Collins died, a month later, his bond-men selected Mr. sullivan to nil his place until the accounts of the office were They were found to be correct and the bonds were discharged. Meanwhile an investigation of the office had been made by the Postoffice Department, and Mr. Sullivan's management was highly of inquiry by Coroner Kene yesterday, but no net light was thrown upon it. It was shown that Mrs. Hodges, after bidding an affectionate good by to her husband and little girl, as was her custom, when the husband and little girl, as was ner custom, when the one went to business and the other to school, locked herself in the bathroom, and turning on the gas-after carefully stopping all crevices about the door and window and the water, after stopping the over-flow of the bathtub, was partly asphyxlated and partly drowned in the tub, which was filled and overflowed until the water was six inches deep on the floor. ORANGE.

It is now thirteen days since Miss Mary McCann fell from a South Gange ave, street car, and she is still in a state of coma at the Memorial Hospital. She has neither improved nor became worse since she was received at the hespital, and her case is a puzzle to the physicians. Dr. Harvey said yesterday that to the physicians. Dr. Harvey said yesterday that there did not appear to be any fracture of the skull, and there was no indication of hemorrhage. He was of the opinion that a small blood vessel was ruptured by the fall, and a clot had formed on the upper part of the farin. He says that the patient is not entirely unconscious, as she seems to know when food is given her. At times she opens her eyes, but does not appear to notice anything. When she is awake she is somewhat restless.
